

The saloon men of Falmouth don't like to give up their business and talk of bringing suit to compel the trustees of town to issue liquor license. They are willing to pay $500 a year. In the meantime Falmouth is dry.

"England expends annually $500,000,000 for food," says the Louisville Times. "From the United States she imports breadstuffs to the value of $80,000,000. But for our tariff our farmers would sell England double the quantity of foods they do, mortgages would be lifted off the farms, and the boys would not leave the old homestead as soon as they are able to shift for themselves."

Our neighbor, Maysville, is naturally a good town, but they are cursed with toll roads in every direction. Before it will ever amount to much as a manufacturing center, the people there must abolish the toll roads into and out of the city. These are a tax to any manufacturing establishment that amounts almost to prohibition. They damn the town subject to them at home and abroad. Portsmouth has free turnpikes, and good ones, which invite the trade of Jackson, Pike, and Lawrence counties, and make them tributary to us for the simple reason that the people there can get to Portsmouth when they cannot get to their own chief towns. Pike County sees this and is doing much to remedy the evil by building free turnpikes leading into Waverly. There are few counties in the State, however, that have made more progress in this direction than Scioto in the last few years. We have good roads, good school houses, and an abundance of churches, and we are forging ahead generally. There is much more to do in the way of additional pikes which the people will reach before many more years roll by.—Portsmouth Blade.

There is no question that "free pikes" would prove of great benefit to Maysville. That has always been admitted on every hand. The four main pikes leading into this city, declared big dividends, we are informed, at their recent annual meetings, and most of them had a large surplus after paying these dividends and their expenses the past year.

The question is how to get rid of these toll roads. Perhaps it might be well for some one who is interested in securing "free pikes" to investigate the subject in Scioto County.

The Senatorial Contest.

Mr. Editor: In selecting a candidate for State Senator the Democracy should not lose sight of the fact that the majority for Mr. Cleveland at the election last fall was only one vote. If a candidate is selected who can not poll the full strength of the party, defeat is inevitable. At best there will be no walk-over for any one.

The action of the late county convention was not a fair expression of the will of the Democratic party of the county. In fact, it is notorious that there are loud murmurs of dissatisfaction. The Democracy of this county understood that the Senator belonged to Lewis County for the next term, and had no doubt but Lewis County would put forward a candidate. In fact, a letter from the chairman of the committee in Lewis County to Chairman Chenoweth, of this county, so stated. Understanding that to be the situation, the Democracy of Mason County were content to stay at home and let Lewis County name the candidate, as she had a right to do, provided it was her intention to so claim. But on the other hand if she had no man suitable for the place it was right, proper and fair that the Democracy of Mason County should be notified of the fact in order that they might get together and make a selection that would satisfy the whole party in this county. Without the greatest harmony, defeat is inevitable.

A few may say that there is an understanding with the leaders of the Republican party that the Democratic candidate is not to have any opposition. It is such is the fact, it is evidently the result of a bargain that the mass of the party will not stand up to, and that the better element of the Democratic party will not permit to be consummated. Now, let the Democracy take warning. The man to make a successful race for Senator on the Democratic ticket must be able to harmonize all the elements in Mason County and must receive his nomination in a fair and satisfactory manner.

It will also add strength to the candidate if he is known to be a man who has at all times, and under all circumstances, earnestly worked for the success of the party.

A DEMOCRAT.

Railway News.

Most all the roads are trying to abolish Sunday freight trains.

The Pennsylvania lines have in their own services over 60,000 freight cars, and have on their lines, any day of the year, from 25,000 to 30,000 cars of foreign roads to look after.

The railroad companies of this country paid $500,000,000 in 1887 to their employees and to the industries directly connected with the roads. The bondholders got but $195,000,000 and the stockholders but $90,000,000 the same year.

The growth of the business of the Chesapeake and Ohio road since M. E. Ingalls took the Presidency has been remarkable, more especially its export business. Within the last few months this road has delivered at Newport News, for export, 200,000 bales of cotton.

One of the most important features of the Illinois Central's business is handling bananas from New Orleans North. They are brought North on special trains run at high speed. The growth of this traffic is illustrated in the fact that in 1881 the Illinois Central took but 370 car-loads North, and in 1888 4,108 car-loads.

Another Wreck on the New Road.

Another wreck occurred on the C. & O. Road this morning about 9 o'clock. The accident happened a few hundred yards east of Cabin Creek.

A freight train, westbound, was thrown from the track by the breaking of a spindle on the car nearest the tender.

Eleven or twelve cars left the rails. The crew escaped without injury. The wrecking train was sent up immediately from this city, and the track will be cleared to-day.

Miss Fay's "piano conversation" at the opera house to-night will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. No one will be admitted to the house after that hour, while the selection is being rendered. The door-keepers have received instructions to that effect.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSVILLE.

Trying time on young chickens. The trying time will come later.

Young squirrels are now talked of among the dainty dishes.

Miss Mollie Knight, of Millersburg, is visiting some of her lady friends in this vicinity.

Croup and whooping-cough are common now among the children.

Early vegetables are quite scarce owing to the cool dry weather.

Professor Milton Johnson left Friday to make a flying trip to Louisville to see some of his old friends.

Miss Lucy Clary left Friday to visit friends and relatives in Missouri.

Bud Berry, of Missouri, made a flying trip here last week to visit his sister, Mrs. B. F. Clift, who has been poorly for some time.

Hon. L. W. Galbraith, a candidate for County Superintendent, struck this place last Friday night considerably jaded, but in fine spirits and as happy as a big sunflower.

The mercury was down to freezing point last Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. A. Jackson has been quite poorly for several days past with something like pneumonia.

J. A. Jackson still has plenty of cabbage and tomato plants on sale at the Stonewall House. Fine varieties.

WASHINGTON.

Whisky has landed Pat Hunt at the gallows, and his wife in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Peter Aderson, of Dover, is visiting at Mr. Charles Anderson's.

Miss Sallie Perrie of Maysville, is visiting Miss Phoebe Forman.

Miss Lilly Casey, of Covington, is the pleasant guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Marshall.

As long as there are no whipping posts for wife-beaters and drunkards, the White Caps come in pretty good play.

Miss Lizzie Rankins, of Augusta, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wood, near here.

Mrs. Laura Green, of St. Louis, is the guest of Miss Hattie Wood, of "Woodside."

Anson Maltby, a lawyer of New York City, came to see his aunt, Miss Mary Marshall, last week.

Jonas Myall, agent for the McCormick machines, and a sterling temperance man, was here Thursday.

Charles T. Perrie, who served on the staff of General Price during the war, was at Mrs. J. C. Humphreys', his sister, the past week, with his wife and son.

We are of the opinion that the removal of whisky from Falmouth will not make any less business for merchants, bankers &c., even if it will for lawyers and police courts.

The Republicans are very much disgusted at the way things are moving, and would rather hear of Mr. Harrison addressing himself to the task of turning Democrats out of office, than to hear of his having prayers twice a day at the White House.
